

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: ENGLAND

Program Dates: TENTATIVELY July 8 – July 29, 2009

Program Description:

London, England, the location for this program. It is a cultural center not only for the United Kingdom and the former British Empire, but also for the entire world. London is teeming with theaters, museums, and monuments, as well as restaurants and ethnic neighborhoods which represent virtually all of the cultures of the world.

Students will survey and study various topics of drama as it relates to the theatre and everyday life.

Program Focus:

The focus for this program is theater and the literature of the theater. Course proposals should relate to this focus and utilize the experience of being in London.

One to two course proposals will be accepted in this program.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Student Advisement

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium per course, round trip airline ticket from Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and the International Faculty I.D. Card

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to the airport, transportation to the faculty/student orientation, passport, health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money