

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: SCOTLAND

Program Dates: TENTATIVELY June 14 – July 14, 2009

Program Description:

The city of Edinburgh, Scotland is located on the rugged east coast of Great Britain, situated on the Firth of Fourth a gigantic bay opening to the North Sea. Edinburgh is a town rich in history and culture with the University of Edinburgh and Edinburgh Castle near the center on an ancient volcanic peak overlooking the city, the port and a 650 acre wilderness park stretching into the heart of the city.

Program Focus:

This study abroad program is open to any field which is able to take advantage of the city of Edinburgh and Scotland in general. The program will, however, continue to introduce students to the aesthetics, principles and practice of Film and Media of the highest caliber from around the world at the Edinburgh International Film Festival.

Two to three course proposals will be accepted in this program.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Student Advisement

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium per course, round trip airline ticket from Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and the International Faculty I.D. Card

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to the airport, transportation to the faculty/student orientation, passport, health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money