

4rd Annual TnCIS Conference on International Education
February 11 & 12, 2010

Sponsored by
Tennessee Consortium for International Studies
Tennessee Technological University

Conference Venue
Tennessee Technological University
School of Nursing and Health Services Building
Cookeville, TN 38505

Thursday, February 11, 2010

Time	Registration
8:30-11:45	Hallway in front of Auditorium
9:30-10:00	Welcoming and Opening Comments Location: Auditorium Tracey Bradley, Assistant Director, TnCIS Mississippi State Community College Amy Miller, Study Abroad Coordinator and Conference Chairperson Tennessee Technological University Dr. Jack Armistead, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Tennessee Technological University
10:00 – 11:30	TnCIS Plenary Session: International Program Guidelines for TBR Institutions Location: Auditorium Moderator: Dr. Mary Ann Sellars, Dyersburg State Community College Dr. Pam Knox, Tennessee Board of Regents
11:45 – 1:00	Conference Lunch Location: Multipurpose room, 2 nd floor of Roaden University Center Dr. Mark Stephens, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs Tennessee Technological University Keynote Speaker: Fred Ochieng', Lwala Community Alliance

1:15 – 2:30

Breakout Sessions:

A: Papers Session: Study Abroad

Sex, Drugs, and Jungle Rot: Pedagogical Challenges in Teaching Abroad

Location: Nursing Building Auditorium

Moderator: Rhonda Waller, Middle Tennessee State University

Dr. Tanya M. Peres, Middle Tennessee State University

Leave the GPS at Home: Navigating for the Tech-Savvy Student

Linda G. Seward, Middle Tennessee State University

Drugs, Culture Shock and Journal: Planning an Effective Syllabus for Study Abroad

Marisa Recchia, Middle Tennessee State University

Don't Go Near the Gladiators Unless...

Dr. Richard Pace, Middle Tennessee State University

Engaging in Undergraduate Research while Surviving the Amazon: Lessons from Ethnographic Field School

B: Papers Session: Internationalizing the Curriculum

Internationalizing the Curriculum through Case Competition: Four Perspectives

Location: Nursing Building room 232

Moderator: Dr. Mark Stephens, Tennessee Technological University

Dr. Bob G. Wood, Tennessee Technological University

Dr. Bonita Barger, Tennessee Technological University

Jessica Dunlop, Tennessee Technological University

Jessie Daniels, Tennessee Technological University

C: Round Table Discussion: Scholarships pay interest: Students taking responsibility, writing, and recruiting

Location: Nursing Building room 266

Moderator: Dr. Elaine Oswald, Pellissippi State Community College

2:30 – 3:15

Break

3:15-4:30

Breakout Sessions:

A: Papers Session: Internationalizing the Curriculum

Location: Auditorium

Moderator: Dr. John Espey, Volunteer State Community College

Jonathan D. Bethard, Pellissippi State Community College

Taking Anthropology Abroad: An Ideal Discipline for the International Experience

Dr. Robert W. Spires, Middle Tennessee State University

Internationalizing a Mass Communication Curriculum: Report from a work in progress.

Michael Becraft, Austin Peay State University
Incorporating Cultural Competence into an Upper-division Online Course

Dr. Charles H. Frost, Middle Tennessee State University
Internationalizing the Curriculum: Creating Documentaries to Enrich Your Teaching

B: Papers Session: International Students

Location: Nursing Building room 232

Moderator: Jane Stribling, Pellissippi State Community College

Courtney Shaffer, Pellissippi State Community College
International Student Orientation

Charles Wilkerson, Tennessee Technological University
Lorinda Grogg, World Education Services
Credit Evaluation and International admissions

International Student Panel

C: Round Table Discussion: Trouble Shooting Student Issues While Abroad

Location: Nursing Building room 266

Moderator: Dr. Mary Ann Sellers, Dyersburg College

5:00-6:30 Reception: Country Inn and Suites

Friday, February 12, 2010

9:00- 10:15

Breakout Sessions:

A: Papers Session: Study Abroad & Student Exchanges

Location: Auditorium

Moderator: Jon Bethard, Pellissippi State Community College

Theresa Castillo, TnCIS
TnCIS 101

Jeanie Brown, Motlow State Community College
How to Run a Safe Study Abroad Program

Dr. Minzi Su, Tennessee State University
Comparative Governance class taught in both the U.S. and China

B: Documentary: Sons of Lwala

Location: Nursing Building room 230

C: Round Table Discussion: Foreign Student Immigration and Recruiting Issues

Location: Nursing Building room 266

Moderator: Courtney Shaffer, Pellissippi State

10:15-10:45

Break

10:45-12:00

Breakout Sessions:

A: Papers Session: Faculty and Student Research & Internationalizing the Campus.

Location: Auditorium

Moderator: Dr. Elaine Oswald, Pellissippi State Community College

Jonathan D. Bethard, Pellissippi State Community College

From Machu Picchu to Mummies: Insights into Andean Prehistory from the Perspective of Bioarchaeology

Abir El Daba and Dr. Lisa Zagumny, Tennessee Technological University

International Muslim Students' Experiences at a Regional University in the South

Dr. Saeed Foroudastan, Middle Tennessee State University

Sandra Hollis-Hyde, Middle Tennessee State University

Facilitating Cultural Diffusion through Collegiate Design Competition Teams

Dr. Minzi Su, Tennessee State University

Network Governance: a U.S. Case Study with Implications for Chinese Education

B: Papers Session: Service Learning

Location: Nursing Building room 230

Moderator: Tiffany Huskey, Middle Tennessee State University

Dr. Katheryn A. Thompson, Chattanooga State Community College

Change your world without leaving home: Service Learning in Foreign Language Education

Dr. Debbie Harley, East Tennessee State University

Campus Compact, Advisory Committee Chair

Dr. C. Pat Bagley, Tennessee Technological University

Institution- Yes, should be institutionalized!!! Also at Tennessee Technological University

C: Round Table Discussion: Internationalizing Your Campus

Location: Nursing Building room 266

Moderator: Tracey Bradley, Tennessee Consortium for International Studies