

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: CHINA

Approximate Program Dates: Four weeks in mid May to mid June

Program Focus:

This program offers elementary and intermediate courses in the Chinese language while they experience Chinese culture first hand. In addition, courses taught in English from other academic fields are welcome as long as they relate closely to China.

Program Description:

China is the largest developing country in the world. As China becomes a stronger global and economic force, it is pertinent that relations between the U.S. and China continue to grow. The program will primarily take place at Hubei University located in the city of Wuhan and will also include a three day tour of Beijing. Wuhan is the capital of Hubei province and boasts an exciting history, including the most famous battles in China's history. This location will give the students a great opportunity to experience the historical, cultural, and geographical importance of central China.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, visitor's visa, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.