

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: FRANCE

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in May

Program Focus:

This program is designed to provide students with a variety of courses while they experience French culture first hand. Trips to cultural sites will also convey important information about both contemporary and historical France. Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields, as long as they relate closely to France.

Program Description:

The program will be hosted in the city of Cherbourg where an infrastructure is in place to provide all services to the students. Cherbourg is in the heart of Normandy on a peninsula that reaches into the English Channel and gives easy access to the historic sites of Normandy. Bayeux, Caen, the D-Day Beaches, and much, much more are just a short distance from Cherbourg. The program will be based in Cherbourg and conclude with a visit to Paris.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.