

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: FRANCE

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in June/July (Subject to change – final dates are set in August prior to the fall faculty orientation.)

Program Focus: This program is designed to provide students with a variety of courses while they experience French culture first hand. Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields, as long as they relate closely to France.

Program Description:

Paris—the City of Light—is a destination packed with wonderful things to do and see. As a capital of art, fashion, literature, music, food, and ideas, Paris has stood for centuries as the beacon of culture and the “cover-girl” of world cities. As the American writer Ernest Hemingway said, "If you are lucky enough to have lived in Paris as a young man, then wherever you go for the rest of your life, it stays with you, for Paris is a moveable feast." And Paris will stay with you for the rest of your life, too. Come sample the finer things in life and l’art de vivre—the art of living—in a city that will make you a citizen of the world, broaden your perspective, and teach you new ways to measure the quality of your life.
