

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: GRAND EUROPEAN CAPITALS (GEC II)

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in July (Subject to change – final dates are set in August prior to the fall faculty orientation.)

Program Focus: This program is designed to provide students with a variety of courses while they experience important European Capitals: Paris-Amsterdam -Berlin (GEC II). Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields, as long as they relate closely to the locations of the program.

Program Description:

GEC II will also begin in Paris, a city that is famous for towers and gargoyles, culture and cheese, revolution and history. Then, we travel to Amsterdam, a city that never sleeps, the capital of canals and The Netherlands. Our program will conclude in Berlin, the capital of Germany, a new and reborn city where young people from all over Europe come to spend their weekends!

France, The Netherlands, and Germany are countries located in the western part of Europe. Paris is the fashion, arts, media, and education capital of Europe. Amsterdam is the social capital of European freethinkers. It is a city that is defined by its cutting-edge contributions to the world of politics, business and modern arts. Finally, Berlin is important center of youth and popular culture in Europe. It has a rich art scene, and it is home to hundreds of art galleries and main music studios.
