

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: JAPAN

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in May (Subject to change – final dates are set in August prior to the fall faculty orientation.)

Program Focus:

This program is designed to provide students with a variety of courses while they experience Japanese culture first hand. Trips to cultural sites will also convey important information about both contemporary and historical Japan. Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields as long as they relate closely to Japan.

Program Description:

The program will be based in Tokyo, Japan. Tokyo is the largest city in Japan and one of the largest metropolitan areas in the world. The country is highly industrialized with a very unique cultural heritage. Japan is home to Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Sony, Canon, Mitsubishi, Prometric Japan and other large companies in the world. Japan is the place where old meets new, tradition meets modernity and change. It is a country of social, cultural and technological contrasts. Tokyo is one the world's most amazing and fascinating capitals. You will see the newest fashion, taste the most novel dishes, and feel the pulse of the Japanese cities. Students will be immersed in the most unique and challenging study abroad experiences.
