

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: SCOTLAND

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in June (Subject to change – final dates are set in August prior to the fall faculty orientation.)

Program Focus: This program welcomes courses from all academic fields as long as they relate closely to Scotland.

Program Description:

This program will take place at various locations around Scotland, a country rich in history and culture. A variety of settings with mountains, castles, and ocean views will be our classroom as we travel to cities and villages around the country before we arrive in Edinburgh, Scotland's scenic and exciting capital city. Everywhere we travel, we'll have the opportunity to explore windswept coastlines, stately homes, dramatic castles, famous museums, and medieval chapels. All of these locations and landmarks will provide a sense of Scotland's impressive history and serve as the perfect background for studying abroad. Every day, you'll be surrounded by the vibrant culture and centuries of history that Scotland offers!

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Taxable two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), individual single seat round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, visitor's visa, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.