

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: AUSTRIA

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in July (subject to change)

Program Focus:

This program is designed to provide students with German language courses while they experience Austrian culture first hand. In addition, courses taught in English from other academic fields are welcome as long as they relate closely to Austria.

Program Description:

Austria, officially the Republic of Austria, has long enchanted people from all over the world with images of snowcapped Alpine peaks, the intellectual and artistic ferment of Vienna's coffeehouses, and the musical and political dominance of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Vienna is a unique blend of history and modernity with culture and tradition abound. It is a city that can cater to almost every taste with an excellent mix of art, music, architecture and entertainment. Imperial sights, art treasures overflowing in museums and art collections, a packed cultural calendar, a long tradition of music (Mozart, Strauss, Beethoven, Schubert, and a lively youth music scene), along with excellent theatres and concerts that cater to a diverse and international audience.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), individual single seat round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, all in country ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, passport, personal spending money.