

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: SCOTLAND

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in June (subject to change)

Program Focus:

This program welcomes courses from all academic fields as long as they relate closely to Scotland. However, the program in Scotland coincides with the dates of the world renowned Edinburgh International Film Festival and courses which relate to media, film studies, etc. are especially welcome.

Program Description:

Edinburgh, Scotland is located on the rugged east coast of Great Britain, and situated on the Firth of Forth, a gigantic bay opening to the North Sea. Edinburgh is a city rich in history and culture with the University of Edinburgh and Edinburgh Castle near the center on an ancient volcanic peak overlooking the city, the port and a 650 acre wilderness park stretching into the heart of the city. It has hosted the Edinburgh International Film Festival continuously since the end of World War II. Each summer, the city swells with people from all over the world who attend art events celebrating the flowering of the human spirit through a collection of festivals of film, classical music, opera, dance and the arts. Stately homes, dramatic castles and medieval chapels all provide a sense of Scotland's impressive history.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), one single seat round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.