

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: SOUTH AFRICA

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in May (subject to change)

Program Focus:

This program is designed to provide students with a choice of courses while they experience the South African culture first hand. Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields, as long as they relate closely to South Africa.

Program Description:

This program will take place primarily in Cape Town, an exotic ocean front city surrounded by the beautiful Table Mountain National Park. Cape Town was originally settled by the Dutch and is famous for its waterfront harbor. It is one of the most culturally diverse cities in the world, with African, European and Asian influences. Along with South Africa's unique political and cultural history as well as the abundance of wildlife and scenic landscapes, this is an ideal location for a study abroad program.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), one single seat round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.
