

Program Description for Prospective Faculty

Program: WALES

Approximate Program Dates: Three weeks in July (subject to change)

Program Focus:

This program is designed to provide students with a variety of courses while they experience Welsh culture first hand. Course proposals are welcome from all academic fields, as long as they relate closely to Wales.

Program Description:

Cardiff, Wales is the location for this program. Cardiff is the capital of Wales, its largest city and its major commercial, political, media, and cultural center. Cardiff's population of approximately 325,000 people is extremely cosmopolitan, with a diverse range of nationalities, cultures, and religions. The city is a significant tourism center with nearly 12 million visitors per year. Cardiff is teeming with theaters, museums, monuments, and sports centers. Cardiff hosted the National Eisteddfod, an annual cultural festival, on six occasions, most recently in 2008. Students in this program will live close to the city center and experience this diversity every day.

Responsibilities Prior to Departure:

Attend Faculty and Student Orientations
Recruit
Provide Syllabus

Responsibilities during the Program:

Teach Course
Assist with Excursions
Assist with Program Operations

Benefits:

Two thousand dollar honorarium (paid through your institution), one single seat round trip airline ticket from Nashville, Tennessee, all ground transportation, housing, food, excursions including entry fees, and limited health insurance during the program abroad.

Expenses not covered by TnCIS:

Transportation to/from the airport, travel expenses to the faculty/student orientations, passport, full coverage health insurance, non-program sponsored excursions and entry fees, personal spending money.