

14th Annual TnCIS Conference on International Education
Theme: Finding our Way: From Guiding Principles to Thriving Practices

November 6th, 2020

Presented by
Tennessee Consortium for International Studies

Friday
November 6th

Schedule in EST

9:00 – 9:10am

Welcome and Opening Comments

Ms. Theresa Castillo, Assistant Director, TnCIS
Ms. Tracey Bradley, Executive Director, TnCIS

9:15 – 11:00am

Forum Training

Forum Workshop: Framing the Standards of Good Practice

Dr. Nick Gozik, Forum Facilitator & Director, McGillicuddy-Logue Center for Undergraduate Global Studies at Boston College

11:00 – 11:10am

Break

11:10 – 1:15pm

Forum Training

Continuation of workshop

1:15 – 1:35pm

Lunch Break

1:35 – 2:35pm

All Conference Session: Panel Discussion

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Study Abroad

Moderator: Ms. Tracey Bradley

Panelists: Dr. Rushton Johnson, Dr. Candace Warner, Dr. Juan Antonio Alonso, Ms. Jessica Miller, Ms. Felicia Hankins

This panel will discuss what Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) in Study Abroad means and why it is important to make EDI a focus at your institution. Ask your questions and share your ideas during this interactive discussion.

2:35 – 2:45pm

Break

2:45 – 3:45pm

All Conference Session: Panel Discussion

From Surviving to Thriving: Post Pandemic Strategies for International Education

Moderator: Ms. Theresa Castillo

Panelists: Dr. L. Anthony Wise, Ms. Ami Price, Dr. Heidi Leming, Ms. Tracey Bradley,
Dr. Patricia Higgins

Events of 2020 have made many of us in international education wonder how to navigate through the challenges of a global pandemic and its impact on the field. Hear from international education leaders in our state to see how they envision our "return to business" and steps we can all take to ensure students and our individual campus communities are preparing for an even brighter future in international education.